DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Claims

1. Claims 1-20 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted element is: the filter. By definition, transmittance is the ratio of the radiant flux transmitted through and emerging from a body to the total flux incident on it: equivalent to one minus the absorptance. The claims did not have any ratio disclosed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Knox (US 6052058).

As to claim 17, referring to Fig. 1, Knox disclosed a filter integrity monitoring system having claimed limitations, comprising a detection chamber 14 for detecting smoke and a counter 156 for summing smoke particle passed through the detection chamber. The output from counter 156 is applied to a suitable comparator 158 with a preset count therein and, when the accumulated count from the counter 156 reaches the preset count, an output signal is produced at an output 160 indicative that the filter 25 needs replacement (col. 5, line 7-11).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Knox.

As to claim 20, Knox did not disclose a computer usable medium having computer readable program code for performing the method of claim 17. However, it is very common and widely known in the art to use a general purpose microprocessor with memory to substitute complex control circuit due to its flexibility in mass distribution and cost. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skills in the art at the time of the invention to substitute the control circuit with a microprocessor with memory in Knox's detector due to its flexibility in mass distribution and cost.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 1-16, 18-19 are allowed.
